"The Master of madness"
-Socrates

"Bizarre, unique, definitely the evolution of music"
- Rockeros.net

BipolArte, an innovative performative rock group since its creation in 2016, has been shaking up the music scene with its unique and passionate style. From Los Angeles, this singer-songwriter and guitarist has taken his international horror opera to over 400 shows in 90 cities across the United States, Mexico, and Colombia, winning over audiences with each performance.

In 2024, BipolArte releases "Tripolar," their third album, a work that reflects their artistic evolution and ability to blend heavy riffs, haunting melodies, and deep lyrics. Influenced by rock legends like Black Sabbath, Red Hot Chili Peppers, and Rob Zombie, BipolArte creates an unmistakable sound that deeply connects with their followers. BipolArte gives their all in every performance, making each moment on stage unforgettable.
